Numb. 1112.

The Daily Courant.

Tueſday, November 6. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated November 7.

Rome, October 13.

THE 7th Inſtant arriv'd a Courier diſpatch'd from the Duke of Modena, with Letters for making new Inſtances in the Name of the Emperor, to obtain Diſpenſations for Count Staremberg's marrying his Sifter in Law, the Widdow of Count Erneſtus Staremberg who defended Vienna againſt the Turks; and for the Count of Hohenzollern's marrying, tho' he be a Subdeacon: The 9th Signior Morofini, Ambaſſador of Venice, had Audience of the Pope, touching the Affairs of Lombardy and of Vieana, which do not appear to be yet tending to an Accommodation. Cardinal d'Arquyan, the Queen Dowager of Poland's Father, has been very ill of a Fever ſeveral Days, but notwithſtanding his great Age is like to recover.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated November. 10.

Turin, October 21. General Staremberg ſet out from hence this Morning for Aſti, to make neceſſary Diſpoſitions for vigorouſly defending that Place, in caſe the Duke de la Feuillade attack it, as the Enemy have given out he will ever ſince they withdrew from before this City. His Royal Highneſs is indiſpos'd of a Cold. While the Duke de la Feuillade lay before this Place, our Parties took 1000 of his Horſe.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Noxember 10.

Baſil, November 1. The Roman Catholick Cantons are aſſembled at Lucerne, to conſider of renewing their ancient Alliance with the State of Milan; and we hear the Canton of Switz which was moſt averſe to it, has within theſe 3 Days conſented to it. The Sieur Dandal, a famous Piemontois Party-Leader, ſeiz'd t'other Day between Coupet and Verſoy in the Country of Gez, between 20 ond 25000 Louis d' Or which ſome Merchants of Geneva had ſent to the French Army in Italy; as alſo a Courier of the French King's who was going to the ſaid Army; and 3 Days ago the ſaid Sieur Dandal and another Officer went Poſt through Schaffhuyſen, the one for Vienna, the other to Prince Eugene, with the Letters found about that Courier, which are ('tis ſaid) of great Importance.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 10.

Ratisbon, November 1. Cardinal Lamberg is at Paſſau, and is expected here in a few Days, to receive Homage of this City in the Name of the Emperour. M. Troger Envoy of Auſtria is arriv'd here, and the Envoy of Mentz is expected here in a ſhort Time; upon whoſe Arrival the Diet will renew their Deliberations. All is quiet at preſent in the Electorate of Bavaria, and ſo many Troops will be quarter'd there this Winter, that the Malecontents will not dare to ſtir.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 10.

Frankfort, November 4. Letters from Ratisbon of the 24th of laſt Month adviſe, that the Levy of 6000 Men made for the Emperor in Bavaria was compleat; and that 3000 Horſe were alſo going to be rais'd for his Service. All which are to be ſent to Italy, to reinforce the Army commanded by Prince Eugene.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 10.

Dreſden, November 4. The Prince of Fuſtemberg who is gone from hence for Vienna, is commiſſion'd among ether things to mediate an Accommodation between the Emperor and the Pope. Count Straatman, the Emperor's Miniſter, is likewiſe gone from hence for Vienna, and is expected back agen with a Propoſal from the Emperor for obtaining the Liberty of the Princes James and Conſtantine Sobieski.

From the Leiden Courant, dated November 11.

Dantzick, November 1. Letters from the Muſcovite Army bring Advice, that the Armies of the Crown of Poland, of Lithuania, and the Saxons, having joyn'd the ſaid Muſcovites, they were all advanc'd within a Mile of the Swedes; and that King Auguſtus was arriv'd in the Army, and had taken upon him the Command of it in chief.

From the Leiden Courant, dated November 11.

Toulon, October 25. Yeſterday ſail'd from hence 5 Galleys, 4 Men of War, and 3 Bomb Veſſels for Antibes, to attack by Sea the Caſtle of Nice, which is defended by a Garriſon of 800 Men: And to Morrow 16 Ships laden with Ammunition will ſail for Villafranca.

From the Paris Letter, dated November 6.

Paris, November 6. We have no News from the Army under the Duke of Vendome, more than that ſince the taking of Soncino he has caus'd his Troops to move nearer to Prince Eugene's, againſt the Arrival of the Reinforcements he expects from Piemont. They write from Caſal, that the Duke de la Feuillade arriv'd there the 22d. of laſt Month with a Body of Forces, and that continuing his march towards Aſti he made himſelf Maſter of 2 Caſtles, in one of which were 100 Horſe and 500 Foot.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 10.

Cologne, November 6. The Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel is expected here to Day from the Army of the Allies in Brabant, in his Return to Caſſel: His Baggage paſs'd through this Town Yeſterday. We expect 12 or 15000 Men of the ſaid Army will ſhortly arrive in this Electorate; and the Baron de Gudenau is already gone from hence, to receive them on the Frontier on the part of our Chapter; 'tis ſaid thoſe Troops are to proceed to the Moſelle, there to take Winter Quarters, joyntly with thoſe that are on the March to beſiege Hombourg.

Falmouth, Nov. 1. Yeſterday were put in here by contrary Wind the Sun and Concord Doggers, both of and for Rotterdam, with Wines from Bourdeaux. Came in alſo to load Fiſh for Genoa the 4 Brothers of Fluſhing, Eraſmus Muttor Maſter; as alſo the Lilley of the Valley Privateer of Fluſhing, with a ſmall Engliſh Pink in ballaſt, which was lately taken by the French and now retaken by the ſaid Caper. Came in from cruiſing the William Privateer of Jerzey Captain Brock, who hath been out 16 Days and taken and ſent home 4 French Veſſels laden with Wines.

Yarmouth, November 2. Since my laſt there hath happen'd nothing of moment, but the 4 Galleys are in the Roads and the Ann Galley is ſtill in our harbour, by reaſon of ſuch ſtrong Eaſterly Winds that the Veſſels cannot get out to load them; here is alſo about 14 Doggers that came from the Northward riding in theſe Roads, and a Pink from Sunderland John Sugget Maſter.
